

LIVERPOOL JOHN MOORES UNIVERSITY
Participant Information Sheet For Young Adult age 16-24

LJMU's Research Ethics Committee Approval Reference:

Title of Study Bullybusters: An evaluation of an anti-bullying intervention scheme.

You are being invited to take part in a study. Before you decide it is important for you to understand why the study is being done and what participation will involve. Please take time to read the following information carefully and discuss it with others if you wish. Ask us if there is anything that is not clear or if you would like more information. Take time to decide whether or not you wish to take part. Thank you for taking the time to read this.

1. Who will conduct the study?

Study Team

Janette Porter, Bullybusters evaluation project coordinator Liverpool John Moores University Humanities and Social Science, John Foster Building, 80-98 Mount Pleasant, Liverpool, L3 5UZ
e: J.Porter1@ljmu.ac.uk

Co-investigator: Professor Kay Standing

School/Faculty within LJMU: APS/HSS

2. What is the purpose of the study?

The purpose of this study is to evaluate the Bullybusters anti-bullying intervention scheme to see what is working well, what needs improving and to consider changes moving forward. The evaluation will help to develop Bullybusters further. The evaluation is about the delivery of the service and not that of any bullying issues you may have had.

3. Why have I been invited to participate?

You have been invited to take part in this study as someone who has experience of using the Bullybusters service.

The study is being advertised on the Bullybusters website as well as their social media accounts. Additionally, Bullybusters has emailed its schools, colleges and places where it has delivered its service.

4. Do I have to take part?

We would really like you to participate but there is no obligation to do so. If you do want to participate, please read through this information sheet and take the short online anonymous questionnaire via this LINK

<https://ljmu.onlinesurveys.ac.uk/final-young-person-age-16-24>

By completing the questionnaire, you are consenting to participate in the study. If you decide mid-way through the questionnaire, you do not want to continue just close the browser on your device and no information will be saved. If you are age 16-18 we highly recommend you inform your parents/carers/guardians of your participation so they can support you if needed.

5. What will happen to me if I take part?

If you would like to take part in the study, we invite you to complete a short online anonymous questionnaire. The questionnaire should take no more than 5-10 minutes to complete. By completing the questionnaire, you are consenting to participate in the study. The link to the study can be found here:

<https://ljmu.onlinesurveys.ac.uk/final-young-person-age-16-24>

6. What are the possible benefits of taking part?

Whilst there will be no direct benefits to you for taking part in the study, but it is hoped that this work will enable Bullybusters to develop their work going further.

7. What will happen to the data provided and how will my taking part in this project be kept confidential?

The information you provide as part of the study is the study data. You will not be identifiable in any ensuing reports or publications we will not be asking for your name.

8. What will happen to the results of the study?

How we will use the questionnaire?

We will use the information from the questionnaire to create two reports for Bullybusters. The report will help them improve their service.

Reports are for;

- 1- Local Solutions Bullybusters funder
- 2- Executive summary for stakeholders

Additionally we write a peer-reviewed journal article, a Conversation piece to coincide with anti-bullying week and we will present the findings at a Local Solution event during anti-bullying week November 2021 in Liverpool.

9. Who is organising and funding/commissioning the study?

This study is organised by Liverpool John Moores University and funded/commissioned by Local Solutions.

10. Who has reviewed this study?

This study has been reviewed by, and received ethics clearance through, the Liverpool John Moores University Research Ethics Committee (Reference number: 21/HSS/004).

11. What if something goes wrong?

If you have a concern about any aspect of this study, please contact the relevant investigator who will do their best to answer your query. The investigator should acknowledge your concern within 10 working days and give you an indication of how they intend to deal with it. If you wish to make a complaint, please contact the chair of the Liverpool John Moores University Research Ethics Committee (researchethics@ljmu.ac.uk) and your communication will be re-directed to an independent person as appropriate.

12. Data Protection Notice
